

1 gets more or less. The point that is always made here
2 and you should understand is who pays the county that 3 gets more than it should. Now, by the same token, if this 4 farm assessment provision is adopted as a part of the 5 integral part of the state, then this coupled with 6 Section 8.02-1, the equalization section, will insure 7 that each political subdivision will get exactly what it
8 is entitled to per the constitution and that the people 9 in your county will not be required to pay any more than 10 the people in my county for conscious underassessment.

11 Delegate Macdonald, do you have a further
12 question?

13 DELEGATE MACDONALD: Is it not a fact, Delegate
14 Case, if one group, in this particular case, the farmers, 15 are given a special tax break, assessmentwise, that that 16 increases the burden on other taxpayers and that that 17 increase is reflected not only in the assessments them-
18 selves, but through the equalization formula.

19 DELEGATE CASE: As I answered earlier, of 20 course, anytime you reduce an exemption or make an exemption, 21 and I don't care what exemption it is, you necessarily
